Manifesto for the Future. By Sam J.
Knights, originally published by Monkey Wrench. January 23, 2020. The future feels different now. Different somehow, from how it was when I was young.
Back then, when the world seemed full of possibility, the future was dependable. The future was safe.

Could there be a future for manifestos? A “contemporary” manifesto could perhaps be perceived as a naïvely optimistic call for collective action, as we live in a time that is more atomized and has far fewer cohesive artistic movements.
